01/06/19-05/26/19

9:00 AM

Ephesians

E102

Elective 1

Scott Holmes, Jason Dempsey

The study of Ephesians will show Christians the rich spiritual blessings believers have in Christ and how to live them out.

Spiritual Disciplines

E110

Elective 2

Terry Blakemore, Jim Groff

This class will teach about practices found in the Bible that promote spiritual growth among believers. Focus will be placed on developing Christian character, which can come from exercising biblical self-discipline in an undisciplined world.

Stewardship

C102

Young Adults (Singles 18-25)

Zach Moore

The Young Adults will look to the Bible to see what God says about wisely stewarding the gifts He gives believers, including money, health, time, and skills. The morning includes time for breakfast, teaching, and discussion.

Mark

E110

Elective 3

Scott Faucher, Russ Smith

This gospel written by Mark provides a unique portrait of Jesus that gives insight into who He was and what He came to accomplish. The book is written in a powerful and energetic literary style that is full of drama, mystery, and color.

Systematic Theology 1

E102

Elective 4

John Dube, Bill Conovaloff

This class will search the Bible to find all verses pertaining to several given topics, which is known as systematic theology. It includes the study of the Bible (bibliology), God (theology proper), and angels, Satan, and demons (angelology). It will also consider how it relates and applies to life and ministry.
